

Stars and Numbers - Bulletin 339 / 28

John Nelson reports having seen something similar in one of the Sloper Specimen books dating to the early 1890s. The six-pointed star was used as a separator between the £sd values.

68826235400★19★10

Three of Steve Netten's stamps (dating to c1957) are illustrated again for direct comparison.

